Long road lies ahead
Like a river of my mind,
Far beyond across the land
Leading to the sky□

No suggestion to come back
To the place where all□s begun,
I go away smoking my fag
And realize: What□s done is done.

I choose my destiny, my way,
My only road, for what to pray,
I□ve got nobody to obey,
And every time I□m coming home,
I□m really proud that it□s my own,
Sometimes I want to be alone□

Warm night hides my dreams
And I don□t want her to know
All my secrets and my deeds,
I□m not afraid to go□

Somewhere a long road lies
Like a river of my mind,
Far beyond across the land
Leading to the sky□.
