Homo homini lupus est

Do you need any other request?

It's pity, but such is a human nature ☐

Deeds fierce and kind are just lecture

No, really, and what are you waiting for?

We all were born like evil foe,

Like strong and healthy, and savage creatures

With human faces and even features

And voices inside us are crying claims:

☐Be first and the best!☐ ☐ these our aims!

You should not be sorry or little shy ☐

Yes! Merciless be or simply die☐

The rules of the life are truthfully evil,

But who has told they not from the Devil?..
